STANDARDS

Youth attending Softball Clinic must maintain BYU standards. Included in these high standards of honor are integrity; respectful language; morality; abstinence from tobacco, alcohol, coffee, tea, and harmful drugs; and modesty in dress. All hairstyles should be clean and neat. Extreme hairstyles are unacceptable. Athletic shorts are acceptable only in the PE areas; shorts worn in other areas must be knee-length. No sleeveless shirts or tank tops are permitted, except during training or competition (must have sleeved shirt walking on campus, for meals, evening activities, etc.). Dress and grooming standards are strictly enforced on campus. Failure to comply with these standards may result in a request to make appropriate changes and/or dismissal from camp (see Honor Code link on the Information Packets page on our Web site).

Due to safety and liability concerns, any participant found in or entering campus construction areas will be subject to immediate dismissal.

FOOD AND HOUSING

Campus housing participants will eat most meals in the Cannon Center. Non-housing participants will eat lunch with the housing participants. There is a $2 replacement cost for lost meal cards. BYU dress and grooming standards are strictly enforced in the cafeteria; therefore, please remember to bring pants, sweats, or knee-length shorts to wear at mealtimes. Flip-flops, slippers, swimsuits, and tank tops are not permitted in the cafeteria.

Campus housing participants are lodged Monday through Wednesday nights in Helaman Halls. Campus housing participants who must stay due to travel arrangements may stay in the residence halls Thursday night and check out by 9:00 a.m. on Friday. Meals on Thursday night and Friday morning are at the participant's expense. The residence hall room is furnished with linen, bedding, towels, and a pullout drawer for valuables that can be locked (padlock must be provided by the participant). Laundry facilities are not available.

SECURITY RULES

Participants should be aware of the following rules and precautions:

- Do not bring a large sum of money or expensive items to camp.
- Do not leave equipment unattended, except in designated secure locations.
- Do not walk alone on campus or leave campus unattended (without a counselor, coach, or other camp staff member).
- Write your name clearly on all items you will be bringing to camp.

Brigham Young University is not responsible for lost or stolen items.

CHECKLIST OF ITEMS TO BRING TO CAMP

- ☐ Mitt
- ☐ Catcher's gear (if you are a catcher)
- ☐ Cap
- ☐ Bat
- ☐ Helmet
- ☐ Clothing for workouts
- ☐ Sunscreen
- ☐ Emergency phone numbers
- ☐ Info on past injuries
- ☐ Water bottle
- ☐ Swimwear for Seven Peaks

Note: Write your name clearly on all items you will be bringing to camp.

Items to leave at home include in-line skates, skateboards, hover boards, water guns, water balloons, fireworks, other explosive/flammable materials, incense, candles, any type of open flame, firearms, pellet guns, BB and paint guns, wrist rockets, slingshots, bows and arrows, knives, swords (including decorative weapons), and pets or animals of any kind. These items are inappropriate to bring to camp and will be confiscated. We also discourage you from bringing media devices, laptops, expensive items, and excessive cash. Cell phones and iPods are acceptable but must remain in your residence hall.

CANCELATIONS AND REFUNDS

Only a participant and his or her parents have authority to request a refund. Full refunds, minus the $35 nonrefundable portion of camp tuition, will be given on all cancellations requested by 5 PM 14 days before the camp begins. No refunds will be given after this deadline. For example, if you are attending a camp beginning June 13th, 2022 refunds will not be given after 5 p.m. on May 30th.

To cancel a registration you must send an email sportscamps@byu.edu with the participant name and camp ID number (confirmation number). Your registration is not canceled until you receive an emailed confirmation from our office. If a program is canceled, a full refund will be given. Brigham Young University cannot be held responsible for any change or cancellation charges required by airlines, travel agencies or other institutions.

INSURANCE

Brigham Young University does not provide medical insurance for sports camps participants. Medical expenses incurred as a result of participating in a BYU sports camp are the responsibility of the family of each camp participant. Participants must carry primary insurance during camp or be self-insured. Expenses for treatment paid by BYU must be reimbursed to the university no later than August 31, 2022.

ILLNESSES AND INJURIES

For minor illnesses, participants may choose to remain at home. Counselors or coaches must be notified in such cases. If medical treatment for a participant is deemed necessary, Brigham Young University will attempt to contact the parent or guardian. In the event the parent/guardian cannot be timely reached, the participant may be transported off-site to receive medical treatment.

Experienced athletic trainers will be on hand to treat injuries that may occur during workouts. For serious injuries, participants may be taken to the Utah Valley Regional Medical Center. Athletes are encouraged to begin strength, flexibility, and nutritional training prior to camp to minimize the risk of injury during camp. It is the camp participant's responsibility to follow the trainers' instructions.

PARKING

Parking for check-in is at the LaVell Edwards parking lot. If you would like to watch your son or daughter during camp, you can park in any of the yellow designated areas below.
